SCHOOL BOYS LEND HAND TO FATHERS ON FARMS HERE

WARTIME TREND RESULTS FROM LABOR SHORTAGE

Youth Helping To Meet Emergency Through Work Certificates

With spring and warm weather—good farming weather—boys in both the city and county school systems are applying for temporary working certificates to help their fathers put in crops now that full time farm labor is scarce.

It began in the city schools April 17, when the first temporary certificate for farm work was issued. Since then, 12 boys have been granted "working papers," Supt. A. B. Murray said. He expects the trend to continue at the rate of one or two boys a day until the end of school.

Murray said boys would work on fine days and on rainy ones, they would come back to school. All school work missed when students are at work is made up, he emphasized.

In the city system, "definitely" more boys are asking for temporary certificates for farm work since the war began, Murray said. The farm labor shortage made the increased certification necessary. The 30 day working law was passed after the war to take care of the increasing necessity of school boy labor on farms. In the county schools, there is no noticeable increase in farm working certificates, Hilly said.

In the county schools, about 25 students are out working on farms all the time, Supt. W. J. Hilly said. The individual students with working certificates vary, but on an average, about 25 are out at school, he explained.

PLOW SHARES AGAIN PILE UP IN SHOPS

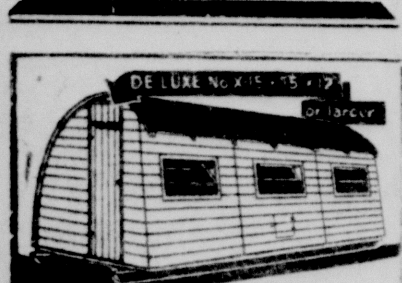

One Smithy Has 90 Waiting To Be Sharpened

The rains over Thursday night and Friday helped ease the pressure on some of the blacksmiths who have been overworked sharpening plow shares recently.

Will Spangler, of Jeffersonville, had 90 shares piled up waiting their turn, Thursday evening, and was disposing of them at the rate of about one score a day.

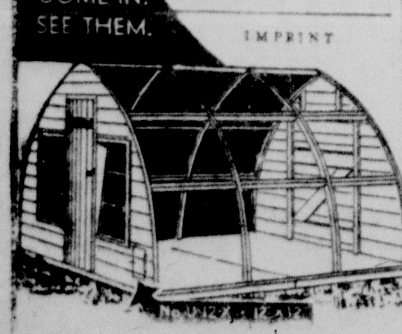

Other blacksmiths have again been overwhelmed with share sharpening, and will be until the present plowing rush is over.

This year some of the leading shares can be purchased, and this has lessened the strain on the limited number of smithies. Last year it was impossible to buy shares except in very limited numbers, and the situation was much more acute than it is at the present time.

Take Care of Old Mowers Because New Ones Scarce

Only a limited number of new mowing machines will be available for purchase by Ohio farmers in 1944, so R. D. Barden, specialist in agricultural engineering, Ohio State University, advises immediate inspection and repair of mowers now owned. Alfalfa cutting is only a few weeks ahead and there may be considerable delay in obtaining needed repair parts.

Most of the mower troubles are caused by reciprocal working parts getting out of alignment or from wear of some part which affects the efficiency of others. Barden says, if sidedraft is evident when a mower is operated, it is a sure sign that the cutter bar is out of line with the pitman. Some farmers have had cutter bars shortened although all the change required would have been lining up the bar correctly.

With the mower standing still, the outer end of a 5-foot cutter bar should be one-half inch ahead of the inner end, the outer end of a 6-foot bar should be three-fourths of an inch ahead, and on an 8-foot bar one and one-fourth inches ahead. Some mowers have special devices for aligning the bar; and in other mowers it may

Fayette County Shepherd's Club

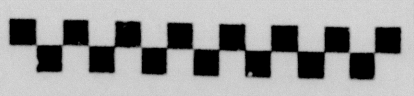

It has been announced by a member of the Fair Board that another breed of sheep has been added to the Fayette County Fair classification—the Suffolk. This, too, is a comparatively new breed for this section of the country, most of them found in the east and Michigan.

The native home of the Suffolk is northeast of London, England. At the beginning of the 19th century there existed in this territory a hardy, active horned breed of sheep known as the Norfolk which produced mutton of superior grain and flavor. Later Southdowns and Crosses were used extensively for the purpose of improving the form and fattening properties. By the middle of the century the resulting crosses were known as "Black-faces" and in 1859 were given their present name of Suffolk.

The Suffolks are little, if any, larger than Shropshire, mature rams weighing about 250 pounds and ewes 165 pounds. They are hornless and the head, ears and legs are black and free from wool covering. Their ears are long and their faces are long and distinctly Roman. In conformation they tend to ranginess, but when well-finished they are plump and well developed in the parts most valuable for meat. The wool is short. Pure-bred flocks usually average around seven pounds of wool.

The Suffolk is very highly regarded for the quality of its mutton. It has more than held its own with other breeds at the great Smithfield fat stock show in London.

MEAT MARKETS UNAFFECTED BY RATION LIFTING

Saturday Buying May Make Difference, But No Rush Has Developed Yet

Although all meat, except beef roasts and steaks, have been ration-free for two days, there was no rush of meat buyers at markets in Washington C. H., a cursory survey disclosed.

One or two stores reported they ran out of pork since it was taken off the ration list at midnight Wednesday, but on the whole, butchers reported Thursday and Friday were little different from other days.

Saturday, however, may change the picture and bring some different stories. Most dealers said they could "tell better how things are going" after the customarily heavy buying for the week end is over.

Frank Jean, proprietor of Jean's Market, put it this way: "Unlimited items don't sell as fast," he said. "People are always wanting what they can't get," he commented. Beef sales at his market, for instance, picked up, although over-all sales showed no unusual increase.

At Helfrich's market, the buying was "definitely heavier." "People seem to be buying more of the same kind of meat instead of lots of different kinds," it was commented. Pork chops were one cut mentioned as selling particularly well.

"People won't have to worry about meat points when company comes now, either," was another comment.

Anderson's Meat Market reported "not so much of a rush." Buying, it was said, was just

MUCH CORN PLANTING DURING COMING WEEK

If weather permits, a great deal of corn will be planted in Fayette County during the coming week, judging by information given out by many farmers.

Usually corn planting is well under way by May 6, but this year has proven an exception to the rule, and very little corn has been planted.

Many farmers who formerly planted early in May are now waiting until May 15 or later to do their planting.

BROOD SOWS ALREADY TAKEN AWAY FROM THEIR PIGS.—That's something else that I saw, that is worth mentioning here. The easiest way to wean a bunch of pigs is to get them well started on the self feeders, just as soon as it is possible to do it, and then by the time they are eight or nine weeks old, the mothers can be quietly taken away from them, and they will scarcely miss them. If you reverse the process, and take the pigs away from the sows, you have a much harder job, and you are pretty apt to give the pigs a shock, and there will be some delay in growth, and no one can afford to have that, in this time of great need for meat.

Of course the pigs should be castrated while they are still with the mothers. Some very good farmers, who are successful with hogs, do this at five weeks of age.

Some farmers immunize the pigs for cholera too, while they are still with the mothers. They can be successfully treated at this time, so that they will be immune from cholera until they are finished for the market, which is usually at about six months of age, or even younger. I think now of one man who had a ton litter at five months of age. An account of how he did this was in this column a few months ago.

DAIRY COWS ON EARLY PASTURE.—Have you turned your dairy cows out on pasture yet? That's what I recently asked a very successful farmer, who was dairying as a major enterprise, in connection with a general system of farming.

"Not yet," he replied. "I know of people who never take the cows off pasture."

I didn't get time to say much more about this, but he is doing

BUMPER FRUIT CROP IN OFFING ALL OVER OHIO

Local Prospects Brightest In Years as Frost Dangers Wane

With most of the freezing dangers now past, and nearly all fruit trees in full bloom, indications point to a bumper fruit crop in Fayette County and Ohio generally this year.

Not only are the peaches reported safe, but practically all other varieties of fruit, and coming on top of a near fruit failure in this area last year, the prospects are welcomed by the public generally.

Last year apples brought enormous prices in most areas, due to the short crop and the shortage of labor. This year the abundant crop, if the present outlook is not marred, should mean a substantial reduction in the price paid for fruit last year.

Last year, most of the fruit that had not been winter killed, was frozen by the low temperature on the first day of May.

FEWER SALES SHOWN THAN IN LAST YEAR

Up to April 22 total sales of prepaid tax receipts in Fayette County were $34,331.25 compared with $36,190.74 for the same period last year.

Sales for the week ending April 22 were $2,419.67 compared with $2,664.36 for the same week in 1943.

FACTORIES BEHIND ON FARM EQUIPMENT

Most Now in Production Is For Use Next Year

CLEVELAND, May 6.—(AP)—Most farm equipment now in production is planned for use on 1945 crops, despite a failure to meet 1944 schedules, reports H. Dale Rue, deputy director for the War Production Board.

"The farm machinery year is now in its last quarter," Rue explained, "and while we hope some of the plants will catch up in the next 60 days, frankly most of the equipment now in production is being built for the 1945 crops."

Rue said 79 plants in the region are from one to eight months behind on production schedules. He said causes of the delay included shortage of manpower and lack of malleable castings.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Mahatma Gandhi's release from internment by the government of India, on the grounds of his serious illness, is bound to be widely interpreted as calculated to deprive him of the martyrdom which would come from dying while imprisoned.

Certainly, without attempting to read the government's mind, we can say that Gandhi's liberation is an act of wisdom, for when his death comes it will sweep India like a prairie fire. One handles sentiment like that with discretion.

The little Mahatma is by far the most influential individual among the four hundred millions of that vast sub-continent. To understand this you must know that his chief hold on his people rests in his spiritual leadership, apart from his political dominance of the All India Congress. Countless lowly millions regard him literally as divine, and try to worship him, despite his efforts to discourage this.

It is with reluctance that one discusses in cold print the death of a man who still lives. However, I'm well enough acquainted with Gandhi to know that if he were informed that his passing was under discussion he would merely smile and crack one of his dry jokes. The Mahatma, veteran of many hunger strikes, has walked with death too many times to let the final call worry him.

The great question in most minds, and especially in the calculations of the New Delhi government, is what effect Gandhi's death will have (1) on the general population and (2) on the grave political crisis growing out of the battle for independence from England. We know that living he has been so powerful that he might have inspired revolution, had he so willed and had non-violence not been one of his cardinal principles. What, then, will his death mean to India when it comes?

Well, of course, there will be mourning throughout the land. And one seems to see a long line of weeping thousands following the Mahatma's bier to the burning ghat for cremation in accordance with the Hindu faith. Predictions about an emotional country are unsafe, but if his people abide by his teachings there will be no demonstration of violence, though there's always danger that passions may get out of hand in isolated spots at such a time.

Gandhi's death will remove one of the great leaders of the masses through the ages. It will take away an influence which, despite its mistakes, has worked wonders for the social and moral uplift of his people. Still, it shouldn't cause demoralization among his followers, for others will carry on, though they cannot fill his place.

I should say that his successor in political leadership will be his great friend and disciple, Jawaharlal Nehru.

SCHOOL BOYS LEND HAND WITH WORK ON FARMS DURING LABOR SHORTAGE

Certificates in the county schools are issued for five days and may not be renewed consecutively, Hilty said. Under law, a student is allowed 30 legal working days each school year.

Permanent certificates are issued to students over 16 and 18. Application for such a certificate is signed by the parents. A medical certificate and an employer's certificate are also made. One convenient angle to the certificate set-up is an over-age certificate for boys and girls over 18 who are physically small and appear younger than their age. Any questions an employer might have about the person's eligibility to work are settled when the certificate is produced.

Since last June, 72 permanent working certificates have been issued at Washington High School. Counting renewals of previously issued certificates, 50 boys and 47 girls of school age are now working full time, Murray said. County schools, Hilty said, are conservative in issuing permanent certificates. The issuance is left entirely to the discretion of the principals and superintendent and are issued only when they think the child could get nothing out of further school attendance, he said.

No certificates are issued for

ONE CONTEST AMONG CENTRAL COMMITTEEMEN

Eight Precincts Are Without Democratic Candidates For the Post

When voters go to the polls Tuesday they will find candidates for both Republican and Democratic Central Committeemen, with exception of eight precincts in which the Democrats have no committee candidates.

There is only one contest on both tickets for central committeemen, that is in Perry Township, where Russell C. Beatty and Harley McCoppin are seeking the place on the Republican committee.

The Republicans elect one committeeman from each ward and township, while the Democrats select a committeeman from each of the 44 precincts.

It is expected that in the eight precincts where the Democrats have no candidates they will write in names and the one receiving the largest number of votes will be elected just the same as if the names were printed and voted upon.

Following is the list of candidates for the Republican central committeemen:

Following is the list of precinct candidates on the Democratic ticket:

Second Ward, A. D. H. C. Bowen; B. E. A. Ellis; C. E. R. Schnell; D. Stan Hagerty; E. Harry Baker.

about the same, although a little more pork than usual was sold. At Barchet's Market there was "not such a rush," Mrs. Barchet said. "People were glad to find they could get bologna and sausage without stamps," she added, but said there had been no grand rush on pork, although she said no real picture of the situation could be made until after Saturday.

At most other stores, dealers reported slightly above normal sales but, as one man said, "nothing to get excited about. At Albers Market, however, meat sales went up 25 percent, it was said. Fred Ensen said there is "no difference" in meat sales at his Dot Food Store, although he too felt that Saturday sales would "really tell the tale."

Withholding Rates On New Tax Bill

WASHINGTON, May 6.—(AP)—Under the tax simplification bill that was passed by the House Friday, the withholdings from wages and salaries will become the actual tax next January 1 for millions of persons earning $5,000 and less.

The official table setting forth the new withholding rates, adjusted upward from present wage and salary deductions so as to take the full tax liability, follows:

(0—Persons with no exemptions, such as a working wife whose husband takes the entire family status exemption; 1—single person; 2—married person, no children; 3—married, with one child; 4—two children; 5—three children; 6—four children; 7—five children.)

Ladies of GAR Observe the Golden Anniversary Friday At Memorial Hall Here

Twenty-one members of the ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic met in the GAR Hall, Friday afternoon, to observe the golden anniversary of that organization here, and Miss Josephine Gossard, who is a charter member of the organization was honored at this time.

Preceding the serving of a most delicious and tempting array of covered dishes, prayer was offered by Mrs. Lucy DeWeese. For the enjoyable luncheon hour the guests were seated at one long table, where the decorations were carried out in gold. The centerpiece was of gold spring flowers, and seen in great profusion about the spacious room were bouquets of tulips and lilacs. Flanking the table centerpiece were tall gold tapers.

After the luncheon Miss Josephine Gossard was presented with a small gold pin, bearing the GAR insignia with a dainty chain attached to which was the numeral, 50. The presentation was made by Mrs. Frank Littler, president of the organization and Miss Gossard responded with appropriate remarks.

Each member was presented with a tiny satin ribbon bow, in gold, as a favor for the most enjoyable occasion. At the conclusion of the ceremonies, a brief business session was conducted by Mrs. Littler.

"None Shall Escape," the sensational film opening at the State Theater, Sunday, shockingly portrays the Nazi crimes of aggression in conquered Poland and prophetically predicts the punishment which will be meted out to them according to the promise of the Moscow Pact. In this thrilling scene, Alice Grimm (Ruth Nelson) is forced to look on helplessly while her husband (Erik Rolf) is taken away to a concentration camp on orders from his Nazi brother.

COMING FEATURES AT THE THEATERS

FAYETTE THEATER

"The Purple Heart" starring

Dana Andrews, Richard Conte, Farley Granger, Kevin O'Shea, Donald Barry, Trudy Marshall, Sam Levene, Charles Russell, John Craven, Tala Birell, Richard Loo and Peter Chong will be shown at the Fayette Theater Sunday and Monday. In essence this film is the story of eight yank fliers who bomb Tokyo, fall into the brutal hands of the Japs and are put on trial, not as prisoners of war, but for murder. How these dauntless fliers defy their captors, pit their Yank guts against Jap terror, and literally tie the entire Jap empire into knots, makes for one of the most over-whelmingly dramatic stories of all times. It is also a great human story, brimful of rich, heart-warming significance and understanding.

If the perfect crime is one in which the perpetrator escapes detection, then the arch-perfectionist of all time in the criminal world is Jack the Ripper. For the Ripper, in a series of murders that had the whole world in terror, not only was never apprehended, but Scotland Yard, nemesis of criminals, never even came close to apprehending him. Now, out of a terror-filled secrecy of half a century, the story has been brought to the screen in what is called "The greatest of all shockers" by preview critics. This film stars Merle Oberon, George Sanders, Laird Cregar, with Sir Cedric, Hardwicke, Sara Allgood and Aubrey Mather in featured roles. This will be shown Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the Fayette Theater.

Friday and Saturday at the Fayette Theater.

The Fayette Theater will show Friday and Saturday "Knickerbocker Holiday" starring Nelson Eddy, Constance Dowling, Charles Coburn and featured a cast of well-known actors and actresses. Adapted for the screen from the original hit Broadway production this film comes to the screen with all of the gay, bright humor which has made the play such a popular success.

STATE THEATER

A picture that has been called the most prophetic of our time is coming to the State Theater Sunday, Monday and Tuesday by the title of "None Shall Escape" and reports indicate that it is a startling revelation of things to come when the present world conflict is drawn to a conclusion. Certainly, the story is a most unusual and a daring departure from the pictures we have already seen, dealing with the inhuman and terrible results of Nazi sadism. This one brings us to the glorious day when peace shall come through unconditional surrender of our vicious enemies, and a long suffering and righteous people bring the "master race" face to face with its victims. The climax is, we are certain, a forecast of things to come. Alexander Knox, Marsha Hunt, Erik Rolf and Henry Travers play the leading roles. Second film to be shown on the double bill will be "You Can't Ration Love" starring Betty Rhodes, Johnnie Johnston, Marjorie Weaver, Johnnie "Scat" David, Marie Wilson, Bill Edwards and D'Artega and his All-Girl orchestra. Described as a complete diet of diverting entertainment, this new film is about a university where girls ration their dates on a point system, and is a laugh riot from start to finish. Co-starring are Betty Rhodes and Johnnie Johnston.

Wednesday and Thursday a double feature hillbilly jamboree will be shown at the State Theater. The first will be "Hi, Neighbor" starring Lulu Belle and Scotty, plus twenty-five top radio and screen stars, together in this big battle of mirth and music. Second feature will be the Weaver Brothers and Elvira in "The Old Homestead" with their gang of entertainers featuring Dick Purcell, Jed Prouty and Anne Jeffreys.

Friday and Saturday Charles Starrett will be shown at the State Theater in "Sundown Valley" plus chapter 13 of "Secret Code" and a cartoon.

PALACE THEATER

Set to a musical background of irresistible rhythm the celebrated ballroom dances, Tony DeMarco, brings to the screen in breathtaking brilliance, his incomparable dancing technique in "The Gang's All Here" technical musical which stars Alice Faye, Carmen Miranda, Phil Baker and Benny Goodman and his orchestra. This will be shown Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Palace Theater. As part of the double bill to be shown will be The East End Kids in "Million Dollar Kid."

Wednesday and Thursday a double feature will be shown at the Palace Theater, and first will be Ruth Warrick and John Carroll in "Petticoat Larceny." The adventures of a radio starlet whose search for local color leads to the local color topped with a load of laughs and thrills. The second feature will be Johnny Downs in "What a Man."

Friday and Saturday Ken Maynard and Hoot Gibson plus Bob Steele will be shown at the Palace theater in "Senora Stage Coach."

-Spying- On Sports

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, May 6—(AP)—Milwaukee's baseball-minded burghers, who have seen plenty of sensational stunts, should have some brand new experiences when Casey Stengel adds his talents to those of Marine Bill Veck. It cost only $5 (or less) to see the Sal Bartolo-Phil Terranova featherweight title fight at Boston last night. In New York the word "title" alone would be worth $16.50 tops.

Grimm Is Pilot Of Chicago's Cubs

MILWAUKEE, May 6—(AP)—Jolly Cholly Grimm left Milwaukee and his American Association champions for the road back to Whipple Field and the pilot's post with the Chicago Cubs today.

But there was promise the Brewer faithful would not have long to brood over Grimm's leaving as Casey Stengel, one of the few men whose antics in baseball compare to that of Milwaukee's favorite Dutchman, became boss of the Brewers.

With Stengel, one-time Boston Braves and Brooklyn manager, as his successor, Grimm was ready to take over the last place Cubs in time for tomorrow's doubleheader. Yesterday he agreed to fill the post which he formerly held for six years and which was vacated this week by Jimmy Wilson.

Track Is Only 'Good' For Derby

By CHARLES DUNKLEY

LOUISVILLE, May 6—(AP)—Come rain or mud, 19 of the nation's outstanding three-year-olds today awaited post time for the running of the 70th Kentucky Derby with the list of potential starters the biggest in seven years.

America's oldest and premier turf classic probably will be witnessed by a crowd in excess of 60,000. It is the greatest one-day color spot in sports.

Not all the potential 19 starters will go to the post at 5:15 P. M. Central War Time for the mile and one quarter test, but if all should the race will be the richest Derby in history with a gross value of $88,200. The owner of the triumphant thoroughbred would haul down a pot of $86,700. The previous record purse was $86,250 in 1942 when Shut Out galloped to victory to earn $84,225. For each scratch the gross value and purse to the winner shrinks by $500, the starting fee that must be paid 45 minutes before the horses are led into the gate to face starter Rueben White.

Because of his performance in winning the $25,000 added Wood Memorial and two other important stakes this year, Stir Up, from Mrs. Payne Whitney's Greentree Stable, remained a pre-race favorite at odds of 8 to 5. His favoritism was advanced further by the fact that he'll have Eddie Arcaro, the nation's No. 1 jockey, on his back. Almost everything worked out to Stir Up's liking. He will start from the No. 6 post position, a spot that will give him an opportunity to break quickly and sweep into the lead. The condition of the track, even with well-come sunshine, does not promise to be much better than "good." Furthermore, the Greentree gelding can run on any kind of a track, but favors one where the footing isn't too firm. After Stir Up, the winner becomes strictly a guess. Warren Wright's Pensive, M. B. Goff's Skytracer, O. E. Breault's Challenge Me, Alortor, Gramps Image, Autocrat and Gay Bit all had their supporters in what promised to be one of the most open Derbies in years.

The track handicapper made Stir Up his No. 1 choice, with Skytracer second and Broadcloth third. Challenge Me, Pensive, Alortor, Gramps Image, Autocrat and Gay Bit followed in that order.

Phillies Spring Surprises As They Spin Win Streak

By JACK HAND

(By The Associated Press)
First it was the St. Louis Browns and now it's the Phillies spinning a fancy win streak when they are supposed to be playing dead in the second division.

Freddie Fitzsimmons' mixture of hustling minor leaguers and holdovers from the 1943 seventh place outfit have won five and tied one since their last defeat, April 28. The Yankees, too, have a five-game streak and the Browns have won 12 of 15 games.

Ken Raffensberger southpawed his way to a four-hitter and Ron Northey smacked a two-run homer as the rejuvenated Phils shattered Brooklyn, 3-1 yesterday. Fitz club could take the lead by beating the Dodgers again today, provided Cincinnati tops St. Louis.

The New York Giants lost their fifth in succession. A 3-2 verdict to Boston.

Nick Etten was Mr. Big in the Yanks' 11-7 triumph over the Red Sox, clubbing Tex Hughson and Joe Wood, Jr., for a homer, double and single, batting in two runs and drawing four walks to boost his average to .488. Etten now has hit safely in 11 consecutive games. Early Wynn of Washington and Jesse Flores of the Athletics were rapped hard, but Ossie Bluege of the Nats was able to come up with better relief pitching and a seven-run spurt in the last two innings for an 11-8 verdict.

Cold weather froze out the Pittsburgh-Chicago and Cincinnati-St. Louis games in the National and wet grounds postponed the St. Louis-Cleveland and Chicago-Detroit American League tilts.

The senate has indicated it, too, will approve. The levy won't be less, but at least it won't be jammed down the throat all at once in mid-March.

Now It's Switzerland

The United States has taken another step toward plugging in the channels of vital war goods flowing to Germany; negotiations are in progress to reduce Switzerland's exports to the Nazis.

The talks are being held in London between delegations from Switzerland and this country, and already have been underway for several weeks.

Expected result is a new trade agreement with Switzerland, to take the place of an interim pact signed last December.

Switzerland sends the Nazis fuses, chronometers, precision instruments and a small quantity of ball bearings. Switzerland cut those exports by more than half when the December agreement with the United States was negotiated.

Around The Town
The senate and house both recessed until noon Monday. Which means a house committee to investigate the government seizure of Montgomery Ward Co. in Chicago can't be named until Monday. Faced with opposition from educational organization groups, the house prepared for a new states' rights fight on the veterans' benefits bill. There were signs the senate might get a chance to vote on a measure revising the federal communications commission's powers, with the big radio networks and FCC Chairman James L. Fly opposed.

my defenses in another part of the valley also were overpowered in the American General's drive to capture Mogaung and Myitkyina, enemy bases blocking a future junction of the Ledo and Burma Roads.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur and Adm. Chester W. Nimitz maintained their persistent air attacks on enemy bastions from the Kuriles north of Japan to New Guinea and the Marshalls.

More Islands Attacked
MacArthur's fliers stepped up their attacks on the Schouten Islands, which stand between newly-captured Hollandia and the Philippines. Southwest Pacific airmen also hit Wewak to Hollandia's rear, and Wake Island to the West.

Some of the 60,000 enemy troops isolated in the Hollandia invasion were observed concentrating at Wewak, MacArthur's headquarters reported.

Adm. Nimitz' central Pacific air units hit Paramushiro above Japan. Other Nimitz forces hit Nauru, Ponape east of Truk and islands in the Marshalls.

Two years ago Lt. Gen. Jonathan Wainwright surrendered on Corregidor.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY GIVEN TO PACKED HOUSE

'Best Foot Forward' Tells
Story of Boys' Prep
School Danice

More than one person of a capacity audience, left WHS auditorium Friday night singing "Buckle Down, Winssock, Buckle Down" after the final curtain was drawn on senior class play, "Best Foot Forward."

The adults in the audience were carried back to their own school days when puppy love seemed all important by the story of Bud Hooper's dilemma when he found the glamorous movie star whom he had invited to his prep school's senior prom had accepted his invitation and his own girl friend popped up unexpectedly as well.

Mercenary Gale Joy, a sinking star in the Hollywood heavens, brought some of her screen roles to life to save Bud from expulsion, however, and romped out of the picture with the publicity she sought. Bud's girl friend, Helen, forgave him for his escapade too, which made the ending a happy one.

The entire play was spiced with the antics of the prep school boys and girls, not a little enhanced with the cynical croakings of the blind date for one of the Winssock boys.

Complete Cast

Setting for the entire play was the pennant and Petty girl-plastered dormitory room of three boys. A collection of weird signs and pin-up girls gave it authenticity as a typical college room.

Chorus Routine

Blue-coated, white-skirted senior girls stepped through a chorus routine between the first and second acts to the tune of "Victory Polka". The chorus also appeared in the finale of the play.

Chorus girls were Nancy Lee James, Evelyn Long, Frances McDonald, Kathleen Morrow, Helen Minshall, Eleanor Cline, Barbara Lou Speaks, Helen Adams, Martha Hughes, Joann Crouse, Virginia Hodge, Janice Van Sickle, Jane Cummings, Martha Varlas, Claire Williams, Gloria Butters, Wilma Summers and Ruth Oster.

Besides playing for the chorus number, Paul Fitzwater, director, and the high school orchestra, provided plenty of music before the play began and between acts. Claire Frances Campbell was accompanist.

Directors Honored

Between the second and third acts, Miss Sara Keck, director, and Miss Roslyn Wilson, assistant director, were given flowers on behalf of the class by Steve Kellough and Virginia Bidwell.

Miss Keck gave John Callender, school carpenter, a gift in appreciation of his work backstage—"Anything from scrubbing paint off scenery to building new steps," Miss Keck said.

Virginia Craig and David Ellis are given credit for the play of colored lights on the drawn curtains, the color treatment of the chorus and the stage lighting. The stage set itself was done by Miss Wilson's speech class, E. L. Powell and Paul Hirt. Judith Dray, Claire Williams and Marie Marchant were the publicity committee. The Dramatics Class supervised make-up.

Properties were in charge of Virginia Craig, Virginia Hughes, Frances McDonald, Barbara Lou Speaks and Martha Hughes. The clever programs were made by the Office Practice class, directed by Miss Gladys Melson.

Profits from the play will be used for a memorial left to the school by the 1944 senior class. Mrs. Kay Shockey Huber, in charge of ticket sales, saw that enough tickets were sold to make an extra row of chairs in the back of the auditorium necessary to accommodate the crowd. Karl J. Kay is the class advisor.

THINK INMATES OF INSTITUTION BURNED STRAW

Pair Rounded Up Here After
$300 Blaze at Madison
Mills

John Henry Jenkins, 15 and Robert Lhones, 13, inmates who escaped from the state institution for feeble minded youth at Orient, and were picked up by the police in Washington C. H. at 6:45 P.M. Friday, are believed to have set fire to a shed at Madison Mills Friday afternoon, causing a fire that burned $300 worth of straw and hay owned by Berge Lightle.

Two boys were seen about the place shortly before the fire occurred and it is believed they hurried out after starting the fire, and picked up a ride into this city. Sheriff W. H. Leenhower was notified of the affair about the time the two boys were taken into custody here.

The boys denied having started the fire, but both had chaff on their clothing, indicating they had been about straw, officers said.

Officials of the institution came after them and returned them to Orient.
